WELCOME ABOARD

After our long, hot summer, we are all looking forward to cooler weather and getting back together with old friends to tell our stories of vacations and adventures.

And speaking of stories, our guest speaker for the September 15th luncheon is a true storyteller ... author/artist Laurie Parker from Mississippi. We welcome Laurie to Georgia and are eager to hear her stories and admire her fabulous art. We are also excited to see everyone and meet our new members. We have a great plan for this year's luncheons ... see page 3 to check the dates and places for the next several months.

See you in September!!

SPOTLIGHT ON SPIRIT

Hired in June of 1966, Patricia Grace Murphy holds the important distinction of serving as Delta's very first African-American flight attendant. Pat remembers fondly that after her graduation, Delta Chairman C.E. Woolman invited her class to his office and met with each new stewardess. Throughout her long and stellar career of service, Pat was featured in national advertising in 1980 and ultimately honored in 1997 as part of Delta's inaugural Chairman's Club class.

Pat retired from Delta in 2001. She was an early supporter of the Delta Flight Museum and continues to be a frequent visitor.

The uniform featured in the case to the left is the type Pat would have worn during her first years of In-Flight Service.

The "Spirit of Delta" has carried me all around the world. Every airplane I ever flew in - from the DC-7 to the Convair 880 to the L-1011 - had the Spirit of Delta. And it is still here today in 2016. ~ Patricia Murphy ~

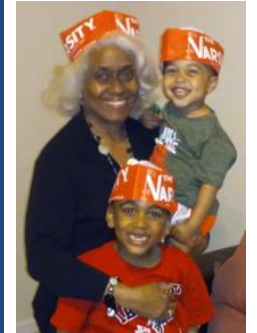

➤ Congratulations to Deirdre and Melvin Pierce on the June 13th birth of their third grandson, Cannon Aiden Layfield. He weighed in at 7 lbs. 8 oz. and was 20" long. The happy parents are Deirdre's daughter and son-in-law, Terry and Sharda Pierce Layfield.

Deirdre shared a couple of cute photos of her three grandsons.

THE FOUTS WAY STATION

➤ Suzi and Tom Modisett, with 110 other family members, gathered in July for a family reunion in Delphi, IN. Cousins reminisced and celebrated the restoration/installation of the Noah Fouts 1839 log cabin in the Wabash and Erie Canal Park.

Noah was Tom's great-great-great grandfather. The German-style cabin boasts a fireplace in the middle of the house and was built during the construction of the Wabash and Erie Canal. It now appropriately sits on land adjacent to the last "watered" section of the canal. The bottom sill beams, made from beech trees, were salvaged from the intact 160-year old Granauer Lock that was unearthed during road construction east of Fort Wayne.

➤ Congratulations to Judy Moon Boyce's husband, Mike, on winning his election for Cobb County (Georgia) Commission Chair on July 26th.

Every September CURE hosts A TRIBUTE TO OUR QUIET HEROES luncheon to raise much-needed funds to support pediatric cancer research. As CURE describes the luncheon on their website ... This event honors mothers of children with cancer, whose love and dedication guides their families through the storm. And it's our way to let these courageous moms know we care about what they've been through and what they continue to endure.

This year we are very happy to give our seats to this event to two of these mothers.

During this summer we provided two lunches at both Scottish Rite Hospital and Egleston Children's Hospital. We also helped at CURE's Annual Lauren's Run and Picnic. We had a great time with the children, handing out cookies and bubble wands.

We have had a wonderful response from so many of you in helping to raise money for these family lunches, so we will once again be raising money for them at the DCW Annual Bazaar (Friday, November 18).

Please know we always welcome our members to help serve these meals, so if you are interested in sharing a little of your time with these wonderful families, please let one of us know ... our contact info is above.

Everyone we meet is fighting some kind of battle we know nothing about, so it's important to remember your gifts, time and kindness are greatly appreciated by these families.

We want to thank everyone who has helped us this year.
Kindness is a simple gift, but the greatest of all.

 Ladies Day Fund, Inc	FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT of LADIES DAY FUND, INC. Carole Lovelace ~ kismetxa@aol.com ~ (504) 598.5673 www.ladiesdayfund.com

I hope everyone had a wonderful summer and are now ready for the cooler fall weather. Ladies Day was very thankful to receive the generous check of $15,000 in May from Delta Clipped Wings' March fundraiser.

As some of you know, a few years ago it became difficult for LDF to have a large fundraiser every year, so a change was made and we now have one every other year. DCW's support of LDF, along with memberships and personal donations, helps make this change possible.

If you haven't sent in your 2016 membership dues yet, please know we accept membership throughout the year. If you are already a LDF member, simply make your check out to LADIES DAY FUND and write "MEMBERSHIP 2016" on your check and mail it to Ladies Day Fund, 1000 Bourbon St. ~ #370, New Orleans, LA 70116.

For those of you who will be a first time LDF member, a membership form can be found on our website (www.ladiesdayfund.com) on the GET INVOLVED page. Please send the completed form along with your $25 check to the address above.

Many thanks again to all at Clipped Wings for continuing to support our fund so we can continue to offer a helping hand and make life a little better for struggling Delta flight attendants ... retired and active.

Sincerely,
Carole

PAUSE FOR A MOMENT CHAIR ~ Ann Beaman D'Agostino ~ AnnBDag@comcast.net

Hello, Friends! It's nice to be back among you. I hope you had a good summer, it sure was a sweltering one!! During the summer I found this quote by Idil Ahmed...

*You know great things are coming when everything seems to be going wrong.
Old energy is clearing out for new energy to enter. Be patient!*

I get that the Universe sometimes has a field day with the events in our lives. But it's the third sentence I have no tolerance for. And that is because, when bad things happen, I want them to be over ... NOW! I have a hard time waiting out the elements that make up the "events," I just want it to be over.

It's sort of like the current political scene. There seems to be all sorts of bad energy swirling around. I want it to all be over so the good, new energy can enter. However, it seems we have to go through bad times to get to new times. How many times have we said we had to learn a lesson the hard way, whether it was to ourselves, to someone else or it was said to us, all too often, as we were growing up?

Life is indeed like peeling an onion. You do it layer by layer and sometimes you cry. Bad situations happen; it's just life. It's how you get through it that makes you who you are. It's the grace of waiting it out in order to come out on the other side a better person that makes you the remarkable person you are today. It's keeping your mouth closed when your insides are screaming what you'd really like to say. It's not writing a letter filled with the diatribe that would get the hurt off your chest, but would do far more damage to the recipient.

Yes, when everything seems to be going wrong, patience is the key.

As I noted above, I am not a patient person. Many of you (and my family) already know this about me. I want it done; I want it over; I want to move on. However, life does not work solely on my terms ... imagine that!!

Life works on its own terms. Sometimes it takes a while for old wounds to heal and old hurts to be soothed. Patience pays.

I guess it boils down to this ... be quiet and be still. Let the Universe work things out on its own terms. If you try to push it, chances are it won't work in your favor.

So, my friends, have patience. Even at my age, it's a struggle, but if I keep still and listen to the world and the message it tries to send me, chances are, good things will come my way.

Till next time,
Ann

VICE PRESIDENT COMMUNICATIONS ~ Sue Zino
sszino45@gmail.com ~ (678) 457.3211

Please do not be offended when I don't respond when you send me an "invite" to be friends on Facebook or "connect" with you on LinkedIn, etc., as I no longer join any "groups." And while I'm on Facebook, it is only to checkout family photos or look for a photo of a member that I don't already have on file.

Please know, not accepting your invitation is simply a matter of time management, nothing personal ... I trust you understand.

SPEAKING OF PHOTOS ...

If you would like me to have a photo of you in my files, please send me a digital copy in email ... sszino45@gmail.com. If you have a head shot, that would be best.

Did you know you can also upload a photo of yourself to your online profile at www.deltacrippdwings.org?
