

Community of DELTA Retiree Organizations

DALRC, Inc.: DALRC, Inc., dba Delta Retirees Connection (DRC), is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization with a focus on issues of common interest to support future and current Delta retirees. It also focuses on legislative issues affecting retirees and provides a service called the ABC's of Retirement; a program of resources to help members navigate into and through retirement. The Legislative Program monitors such issues as Social Security, Medicare, prescription drug costs, etc. DRC offers a program called the Old Friends Locator for members to find and be reacquainted with old friends from Delta. An annual tour program is also available to all members in good standing. Membership is open to all Delta retirees, spouses, survivors and active employees.

www.dalrc.org | 678-782-7577

Insurance Trust for Delta Retirees ("The Trust"): The Trust is a non-profit organization with 24,000 policy holders, providing the best in group retiree medical, prescription drug, dental, and vision benefits to retirees, spouses, and survivors of Delta retirees who are 65 years of age or over (including pre-merger retirees such as Northwest). Benefits included with our Medicare Supplement and Medicare Advantage plans are a Silver Sneakers fitness program membership, travel assistance, hearing aid services, and much more. The Trust offers the financial security of stable group premiums that do not vary by age or state. Call a Personal Health Advocate at (877) 325-7265, Option 2, who will, at no cost, compare the Trust Plan to any other you are considering -

www.itdr.com

Delta Clipped Wings, Inc. (DCW): DCW is a non-profit organization of retired and active Delta flight attendants. It supports three recognized charities, publishes a biennial member directory and a monthly newsletter, The Briefing Sheet, (September through May) for members. Social and charitable fundraising events are scheduled annually from September through May. Membership is open to all retired and active Delta flight attendants - www.deltaclippedwings.org

Delta Golden Wings, Inc. (DGW): DGW is a fraternal organization of retired and active Delta pilots (and spouses). Annual social events include: a May Fly-in/Drive-in at the Alexander Memorial Airport in Williamson, Georgia; a Fall Reunion and Membership Meeting in a different city each year which features city tours, banquets and special events; and an annual Christmas party held in Dunwoody, Georgia. Periodic gatherings are arranged locally in different cities. These activities bring pilots together to meet with old friends and make new ones. DGW sponsors a $1,500 annual scholarship for flight training to a deserving candidate in the Candler Field Youth Aviation Program - www.deltagoldenwings.com

Delta Pioneers, Inc.: The mission of the Pioneers is to maintain and strengthen the close friendships and associations of the members and continue in some form their good will to Delta. Eighteen chapters across the Delta system meet and plan activities. Regular membership shall be comprised of retired employees of Delta; retired employees of airlines or other companies merged with or acquired by or a subsidiary of Delta; active employees of Delta, and companies owned by or a subsidiary of Delta who have at least 7 years of continuous employment. Spouses, survivors and domestic partners are also eligible for membership - www.deltapioneersinc.com

Delta Care and Scholarship Funds, Inc.: The Delta Care and Scholarship Funds, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. The Care Fund offers financial assistance to Delta employees, retirees and survivors who face a severe financial hardship from an unforeseen and unavoidable crisis, including loss due to a disaster or catastrophic event. The Scholarship Fund provides scholarship opportunities to active employees and immediate family members only. Directed by a volunteer Board of Directors, grants are awarded based on guidelines established by the Board.

DeltaNet > Resources > Delta Employee & Retiree Care Fund

DALRC Retiree Assistance Program, Inc.

DALRC Retiree Assistance Program, Inc. (RAP): RAP is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization whose mission is to offer financial assistance with health insurance premiums to Delta's domestic retirees, spouses, and their qualified survivors who are facing challenging financial situations because of health-related issues. This non-profit organization is administered by volunteers who are Delta retirees and is funded by donations from active employees and retirees.

www.retireeap.org | 678-782-7577